MANY HARD QUESTIONS

They Are Put to Witnesses Who Are Against Dreyfus.

TILT WITH JOUAUST.

Labori Wanted Certain Letters Read and His Request Was Finally Granted--Scenes Behind Closed Doors.

[Rennes, Sept. 5.—M. Cernuschi, the political refugee and reputed scion of the Servian royalty, who appeared Monday before the Dreyfus courtmartial as a witness for the prosecution, was not examined by the court during the time it sat behind closed doors today. The examination of the secret dossier was the sole occupation of the courtmartial during the sitting. The decision having been reached to hear the rest of Cernuschi's evidence in court.

When the open session of the courtmartial began M. Labori presented a formal application to the court for an order upon Major Carriere, of the government commissary, to request interested foreign governments, through diplomatic channels, to communicate to the court the various documents relating to the bordereau. Colonel Jouaust said the court would decide the matter later.

The first witness called was Reporter Bassett, whom The Matin sent to London to interview Major Esterhazy. The witness said Esterhazy confessed to him that he wrote the bordereau under orders from Colonel Sandherr, who was then chief of the secret intelligence bureau. The order, Esterhazy said, was to catch a traitor at the headquarters of the general staff, whom Esterhazy afterwards said was Captain Dreyfus.

Carriere burst out with extraordinary protests against Major Esterhazy's insinuations against Colonel Sandherr. "I protest," he cried, in name and memory of Colonel Sandherr against insinuations introduced against him. M. Labori, however, ignored this protest, which he styled, "ridiculous pretensions."

M. Labori then called upon General Roget to testify regarding the letters he had received from Major Esterhazy since the opening of this trial. He replied that he had only opened one letter from Major Esterhazy which he forwarded to Colonel Jouaust. General Roget added that he declined to receive other letters.

Labori then asked Colonel Jouaust to have the letters read. Colonel Jouaust at first declined, but Labori insisted so firmly that Colonel Jouaust after wrangling awhile, gave way and consented that the letters should be read later. Colonel Jouaust explained that he was opposed to reading the letters because they only contained personal attacks upon various parties and would only prolong the trial.

General Roget then read one of Esterhazy's letters which he admitted having opened. In his letter Major Esterhazy said he could not prove that an alleged syndicate was organized in the interest of Dreyfus and complained that the general staff refused to give him a fair hearing.

Labori then put a series of questions intended to bring out the fact that the general staff made use of Major Esterhazy even after he was known to be unreliable. General Roget said he did not consider Major Esterhazy's avowals to be of any value. M. Labori then sought to question General Roget more closely on the statement that none of the generals of the general staff had any relations with Major Esterhazy, but Col. Jouaust declined to allow further discussion.

This led to another scene between the president of the courtmartial and the counsel for the defense. Labori declaring that General Roget who came more as a public prosecutor than as a witness, refused to reply to probing questions.

M. Deffes, reporter of The Temps, testified he saw Major Esterhazy in London and the latter confessed he was the author of the bordereau. The witness added that he raised a question of the letters of Madame Boulanc and brought away the impression that Esterhazy wrote the "Uhlán" letter.

M. Tardieu, formerly minister of justice, was the next witness. He made a long deposition in favor of Dreyfus, reviewing the history of the case and his part in connection therewith. M. Tardieu's deposition closed the public session. He made a very telling speech, describing how his original belief of the guilt of Dreyfus was first shaken and then completely changed to a conviction of innocence by subsequent developments.

At the conclusion of M. Tardieu's testimony, which was a veritable speech for the defense and which apparently made an impression on the judges. The court then went behind closed doors and examined the secret dossier. The court also deliberated upon Labori's request that an application be made to Germany for the documents described in the bordereau. The decision was unanimously reached that such could not be asked for. It was also decided to hear M. Cernuschi behind closed doors.

Pronounced Insane.

Vienna, Sept. 5.—Cernuschi's real name is Hadusk. He is very eccentric and some doctors have pronounced him a lunatic.

TRANSPORTS ENOUGH.

Volunteer Regiments Will All Sail for Manila This Month.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Two volunteer regiments will sail from San Francisco before Sept. 15 for Manila. They will form the first contingent of volunteer troops sent to reinforce General Otis in preparation for the fall campaign. One regiment will sail on the steamers Columbia and Belgian King and the other will leave on the transport Sherman. The remaining eight volunteer regiments will sail before Oct. 1. It seems to be definitely settled that none of the volunteer regiments already organized will leave from New York as had at first been considered. Major Long, the quartermaster in charge of the transportation at San Francisco, has succeeded in getting a sufficient number of ships to accommodate the ten regiments.

Texas Ordered to Manila.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The secretary of war has ordered the Thirty-third regiment of volunteers from Fort Sam Houston, Tex., to San Francisco for embarkation to the Philippines. The regiment is commanded by Colonel Hare.

THE BIG DAY.

Thirty-Five Thousand Men in Line in the Grand Army of the Republic Parade.

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—The big day of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment caused the city to be alive at an early hour today. The presence of President McKinley and his drive over the route of the parade aroused the greatest enthusiasm among the throngs.

Admiral Sampson and the captains of his fleet made a formal call upon the president before 9 o'clock. Mr. McKinley received them in the reception room set apart for him at the hotel. Afterwards the presidential party, including the admiral and captains, entered carriages and went over the route of the parade. As the president started up Broad street a great wave of cheering started and never ceased until he traversed the entire route.

The head of the procession moved at 10 o'clock and marched five miles. Independence hall was passed during the march and caps were lifted and colors dipped by the veterans. A chorus of 3000 school children assembled at the city hall and sang patriotic airs as the veterans passed. Disabled veterans rode in carriages. Thirty-five thousand men were in line.

SCHURMAN ACCEPTS.

He Will Be a Delegate to the Trust Convention at Chicago.

Washington, Sept. 5.—President Schurman of Cornell university will accept Governor Roosevelt's appointment as a delegate to the trust convention in Chicago, though he does not expect to be able to attend the first sessions.

"As it is a matter of serious study of which is really just beginning, I don't care to commit myself to definite conclusions," Prof. Schurman said. "That great aggregations and combinations of capital tend to cheapen production I don't think that any one will deny. There is the further question, however, who gets the benefits of these reductions? If the consumer gets all the benefit or the greater part of it, then such combinations are a direct blessing to the community. If the manufacturer get all the benefits or the greater part of it then the case is different. I am inclined to think that at present the consumer does not get his full share. If this is true, I should favor trying to devise some legislation that will correct the evil."

Died of His Wounds.

Austin, Sept. 5.—Isaac Jackson, an inmate of the Confederate Home, died from the effects of injuries sustained by being run over by a horse at the labor day celebration at Zoo park. The deceased was 63 years old and a member of company G, Fifth Texas infantry, Hood's brigade.

Both Acquitted.

Madrid, Sept. 5.—The trial of Captain Diaz Morean, who commanded the Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon at the battle of Santiago de Cuba, and General Parede, who was on board the Colon, on charges arising from the destruction of the Spanish fleet off Santiago July 3 of last year, has been concluded, both the accused officers being acquitted.

Tennessee Lawyer Badly Hurt.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—George B. Peters, one of the most prominent lawyers in Tennessee, was probably fatally injured while making a tour of the stockyards here. He fell through a shaft. His skull is fractured and he is hurt internally.

of the receipt will give the remitter a feeling of security. On the back of it he may make, for his own convenience, a memorandum of the name and address of the person to whom the remittance is made and the purpose for which it is sent. Production of the receipt will greatly facilitate reference to the records if it become necessary for the remitter to make application for a duplicate order or inquiry as to whether the original has been paid; and here again a saving of time will be effected.

In shape and size the new order is deemed a decided improvement over any other form of money order heretofore adopted by the department. Its dimensions being about those of the ordinary bank draft, it may be conveniently handled when mixed with different kinds of commercial papers. It is believed that the change made in this respect will be heartily approved by banks and business people generally.

It is expected that on or about January 1 next the fee charged for orders will be materially reduced.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

Concessions Made and the Dispute Likely to Be Adjusted.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Great Britain and the United States have practically agreed upon a temporary line defining the boundary between Alaska and Canada. Negotiations are now in progress relate only to minor questions growing out of the definition of the line.

One of the unsettled questions relates to the status of mines owned by Americans which may lap over into the territory which has been under the control of Canada. Representatives of American mine owners say that it would be unfair to American miners if no provision should be made for them in case their property should lie half on the American and half on the Canadian side of the line. The prospective settlement of the boundary question is due to concessions made not only by Great Britain but by this government also.

Secretary Hay has won in the matter of excluding Canada from the Lynn canal, but a port of entry on the canal will be given should the final settlement fail to give Canada a permanent harbor. The secretary has also been successful in keeping the British to the north of the village of Kluckwan, though it is said he has agreed to the placing of the line just above the village instead of four miles beyond, as originally demanded.

Secretary Hay laid the correspondent in the controversy before the cabinet at its session and considerable satisfaction with it was expressed.

It is expected that the modus vivendi will be settled in a few days unless Canada should again assume a hostile attitude, and her present attitude is conciliatory.

Special Commissioner Kasson, who is a member of the joint high commission, conferred with Secretary Hay regarding the boundary negotiations. The modus vivendi has nothing whatever to do with the other questions, pending between Canada and the United States. It is expected by administration officials, however, that with the settlement, even temporarily of the boundary question, it will be possible to push other matters in negotiation to a successful conclusion, especially as Great Britain has taken the stand that the boundary controversy must be adjusted before the other matters can be settled.

Preacher Sues for Salary.

Perry, O. T., Sept. 5.—Rev. S. P. Myers, a well known Democratic politician and former county superintendent of public schools in this city, has brought suit against the Presbyterian church of this city for $1000, claimed to be due on salary by the church to Mr. Myers. Rev. Mr. Myers was pastor of the Presbyterian church for two years after the opening of the town and built a good church house. He quit the church in 1895, joined the Congregational church, and sued the Presbyterian church for $400. He obtained judgment in the lower courts and levied on the church house, but the higher court reversed the decision, and now Rev. Mr. Myers has sued again for nearly three times as much as he did before. The church claims that it has paid Rev. Mr. Myers all that his talent demanded and charges that he never accounted for all the moneys he collected to pay for the church building.

Osages Badly In Debt.

Perry, O. T., Sept. 5.—Advises from the Osage Indian country are that the supposed Indian bankruptcy cases have caused not a little excitement among the merchants and Indian traders to the reservation. It is said the 300 families of fullblood Osage Indians owe on an average $45,000, or about $1500 to the family. Some of them owe $5000. The condition of the Osages, it is said, was brought about by extravagant buying and paying of exorbitant prices to the Indian traders for good. Many of the Indians have built fine residences on their lands, but still live in their teepee, and their good houses in many instances are vacant. It is reported that the Indian traders, in conjunction with the Indian agent, are making a strenuous effort to keep lawyers from the reservation. In all, it is said, that 160 of these fullbloods will go into bankruptcy.

Kansas Bank Closed.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The comptroller of currency has closed the doors of the Atchison National bank, at Atchison, Kas. According to the report of June 30, the bank had a capital of $50,000; surplus and dividend, $11,385; due depositors, $189,103; circulation outstanding, $45,000; total resources and liabilities, $295,548. Suspension of the bank was due, generally speaking, to bad investments.

Death Saved Him.

New Orleans, Sept. 5.—Death has entered the door of the condemned cell of the parish prison and saved the negro, John Wilburn from the gallows. Wilburn died from white swelling from which he has been suffering for some weeks. Some two years ago Wilburn shot and murdered Miranda Moore. A few months ago he was found guilty as charged and sentenced to be hanged.

American Bankers Meet.

Cleveland, Sept. 5.—The twenty-fifth annual convention of the American Bankers' association is in session here with probably the largest attendance in the history of the organization. Between 1200 and 1500 bankers are here representing all sections of the country.

New Form of Postal Money Order.

The post office department has adopted a new form of domestic money order, which will be introduced gradually, or as supplies of the old form become exhausted, at the various post offices throughout the country, after the 4th of September.

The new form is somewhat smaller than the order now in use. Its dimensions are about those of the ordinary bank draft. It has two adjuncts—the advice, or notification to be sent by the issuing to the paying postmaster, is a reproduction of the order through the use of carbonized paper (the manifold process), and a receipt for the amount, to be furnished by the issuing postmaster to the remitter.

On the back of the order a separate space has been provided for the stamps of banks through which it may be passed for collection.

In color the order is blue, having a light blue ground, with fine, closely interlaced, tinted lines of geometrical lathe-work, of darker shade. In the center is an escutcheon bearing the words "Postal Money Order" in shaded capital letters of the same two tints of blue. The tint of the order and the lathe work will serve to prevent imitations; but, as an additional safeguard against counterfeiting, a horizontal water-mark, composed of the initials U. S. M. O., in broad, capital letters, has been wrought into the paper on which the new forms are printed.

ADVANTAGES OF THE NEW FORM.

Through the process mentioned (the carbon, or manifold process,) the order and the advice are produced simultaneously. By the same operation the essential particulars of name of payee, date, amount and place of payment, as written in the order, are duplicated or reproduced, and made to appear in the advice precisely as in the order. The liability to mistake is thus greatly lessened, and a saving of time effected. Discrepancies between order and advice, which, by entailing additional correspondence and causing delay in payment, have heretofore been a source of annoyance to the department and postmasters, as well as to remitters and payees, are prevented, and absolute uniformity between the order and advice insured. The despatch of advice, which hitherto have not been made out until after issue of the orders, will also be accelerated.

The receipt, which is to be furnished by the issuing postmaster to the remitter, showing the number and date of the order and the amount for which issued, is also in the main, a reproduction, by the carbon process, of the writing and stamping on the order, hence must necessarily agree therewith. The adoption of a receipt has not heretofore been practicable. It will tend to popularize the postal money order, supplying more than all else what was needed to make it, in the estimation of the public, a perfectly satisfactory vehicle for the transmission of small sums. "Waco is successfully using crude oil on the streets to lay the dust," remarked a gentleman to the reporter Monday evening as he surveyed the main street desert, which at that hour each day is always in an agitated state owing to the great number of passing vehicles. "Experiment on the roads about Los Angeles, California, has also proved," said the gentleman, "that the plan of using oil is practical. The oil costs 80 cents a barrel, and I would like to see the city council buy 100 barrels and make an experiment on these streets. It is claimed the oil prevents freezing in winter as well as dust in summer." And the gentleman waved his cane over the sea of sand, but it parted not, and he had to trudge home through it.

Friday evening Dr. Hairston was driving down Live Oak street, when he collided with the rear wheel of a farm wagon, his buggy turned over and the doctor turned out with a sprained limb, from which he has been laid up for repairs since. ### What They Have Done.

The Item man drove out a few days since to see the results of the road improvement move recently inaugurated by our business men and county commissioners. Out by the Thomason place the bad portions have been crosswayed with pine poles and about twelve inches of dirt piled on top, with ditches thrown up on both sides, which makes a level and comparatively smooth road all along, a thousand per cent improvement on the old road. We do not know but it may become rough when the dirt packs or washes away, though no doubt that will be looked after.

On the Madisonville road by Mrs. Jo. Parish's and on past the State farm, and on out beyond the Harper (lane) place, the same sort of good work has been done and the road put in Al condition. The State contributed the hands to do a large part of this work while we learn Captain John W. Robinett donated all the lumber needed for finishing up purposes, which was quite considerable.

Other roads will be taken up and improved as rapidly as possible.—Huntsville Item.

REACHING THE CRISIS

No Way to Settle Affairs in The Transvaal Except by War.

FIXING FOR A RAID.

The Boers Are Preparing to Enter Natal and It Is Feared They Will Succeed Before the British Troops Arrive.

London, Sept. 5.—The Johannesburg correspondent of The Standard says:

"I learn from an official who has been earnestly striving for peace that the matter is now hopeless. The Boers will probably declare war at 48 hours' notice and will try to raid Natal before the British troops arrive. I believe the Orange Free State will join the Transvaal, but that the Boers in Natal and the Cape Colony will remain quiet at the outset unless irritated by the dismissal of the Cape Colony cabinet.

"The Boers have the fullest confidence in their magazine rifle and their skill in marksmanship. State Attorney Smuts is the chief inciter of the war party. Thirty thousand people in the Transvaal and 20,000 men in the Orange Free State will take the field."

Amid the crowd of conflicting dispatches from South Africa regarding the Transvaal situation, it is still impossible to say exactly what has happened. It seems evident, however, that President Kruger has withdrawn the five-year franchise, which was dependent on Great Britain's acceptance of impossible conditions regarding suzerainty and has made some sort of temporizing suggestions regarding a conference. The Standard and Diggers News gives what purports to be a report of the secret session of the volksraad on Saturday.

According to this account, the volksraad not only determined to reject the 5-year proposal, but also opposed President Kruger's visiting Cape Town, and resolves to raise a stand for the abrogation of England's claim to suzerainty. The Boer organ then asserts: "The government, both the raads and the burghers, feel that they have offered all that they intend to offer, and are now resolved to stand or fall by this decision."

The Times prints a letter from Pretoria appealing for funds to relieve the terrible distress caused by the protracted tension and the fears of war.

A dispatch to The Mail from Delagoa bay says the refugees from Barberton declare that they were warned to leave as the Boers intended to cordon the district.

There are numerous other dispatches giving rumors as to war plans and operations, the probable attitude of the natives and possible developments.

Telegraphic Safeguard.

Cape Town, Sept. 5.—Arrangements are being completed for safeguarding telegraphic communication with the cape in case of war between Great Britain and The Transvaal.

Refugees to the number of 147 have arrived here. One million cartridges have been forwarded to Pietermaritzburg, the capital of the British territory of Natal. Many Dutch farmers are leaving Bechuanaland for the purpose of forming a laager across the frontier.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

New Orleans, Sept. 5.—Dr. Souchon reports that no new cases of fever have developed and that a house to house inspection of the squares surrounding the two cases reported shows no suspicious circumstances.

Yellow Fever in Mexico.

Vera Cruz, Mex., Sept. 5.—Yellow fever continues along the coast, but there is no panic. The disease has this season been exceptionally fatal. The public demand for improved drainage system has been greatly strengthened.

Fever at Havana.

With Be Sent North.

Presiding Elder Expelled.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 5.—Rev. J. Reeves, presiding elder of the Lexington district of the Methodist conference of Kentucky, was found guilty by the investigating board of conference, of conduct unbecoming a minister, and was expelled from the conference, which means he cannot preach hereafter. The charges are not given out but are said to be sensational.

Schooner Lost.

Goderichs, Ont., Sept. 5.—News reached here of the loss on Lake Huron of the schooner Lisgar of Toronto, and the probable death of her crew of seven. The Lisgar was in tow of the steamer Clinton and was loaded with coal.

BRYAN AND SILVER.

New England Bimetallic League so Declares at Providence.

Providence, Sept. 5.—The second meeting of the New England Bimetallic league at Crescent Park yesterday afternoon was very largely attended and representative Democrats from all the New England States occupied the platform.

General A. E. Warner of Marietta, O., was introduced as "the oldest warrior in the silver cause in the country." He argued that the silver question was considerably larger than the one incident of 18 to 1.

Resolutions declaring for free silver, against militarism and urging the nomination of William J. Bryan for president were unanimously adopted.

Senator R. B. Tillman of South Carolina was then introduced and his address was punctuated with cheers throughout. He stated that the Spanish war was worth all it cost if it had proved nothing else than that the south will fight for the stars and stripes as eagerly and as well as the north.

He declared that unless the policy of the government is changed soon the republic is doomed and will become a government of oppression of the many by the few. He praised New England for what it had done for the country, but called attention to the fact that there were people enough south and west of the Potomac and the Mississippi to elect a president without the aid of New England. He said that while he believed, and always would, that the negro is not the equal of the white man, still he believed in giving him his legal rights barring the political side. He said the negroes did not know enough to vote, and in South Carolina the white people had succeeded in disfranchising them until they can read and write.

Mr. Tillman asked: "If it was right to free Cuba because Spain was shooting Cubans to death, how is it to be reconciled with the fact that the United States which now owned the Philippines was now shooting the Filipinos to death?" He said that he believed that the president is honest in his belief, that he is doing his duty, but claimed that he only looked at the one fact that the United States bought the island from Spain.

The Afghans Suffered.

Bombay, Sept. 5.—The Civil and Military Gazette reports severe fighting in the direction of Penjdeh, at Turcoran camp in Khorassan, about 130 miles north of Herat, between Sirdar Mahomed Ismail Khan, son of Isa Khan, and Colonel Murmohamed Khan, commanding the troops of the ameer of Afghanistan. The Afghans suffered severely until reinforcements arrived, when Ismail Khan was defeated. The latter escaped into Russian territory.

Change of Venue.

Darien, Ga., Sept. 5.—In the superior court in the riot trials, Judge Seabrooke granted a change of venue in the case of John Delagall, Ed Delagall and Miriam Delagall for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Townsend. The cases will be tried in Effingham county, at a special term of the court to assemble next week. During the day two blocks of five of the rioters were tried, with the result that seven were convicted and three acquitted.

Will End by January.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Senator Carter of Montana, in an interview with a Post reporter said that in his opinion the war in the Philippines would be ended by Jan. 1. Then, he said, would come the question of the future disposition of the islands. The Republican party, he believed, would settle this question by insisting that the retention of the Philippines is a matter of business profit.

Want Cotton Pickers.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 5.—Numbers of farmers are on the square by daylight every morning in search of cottonpickers. The negroes, a majority of whom had been paid 40 cents last week, held out for 50 cents. The demand was finally conceded, but some of the farmers returned with empty wagons rather than stand the raise.

Scarcity of Water.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 5.—The great scarcity of water in this country is driving some persons to commit unlawful acts. Charley Hood, a prominent farmer who lives six miles south of town, had a pool fenced in. A few nights ago unknown persons went to the pool and cut the barbed wire fence surrounding it into small pieces.

Arkansas Timber Suit.

Little Rock, Sept. 5.—United States District Attorney Jacob Triebel filed a suit in the Federal court against the Saginaw Lumber company and A. J. and Charles Neimeyer of St. Louis, for $48,516, the value of timber alleged to have been cut by them from government lands.

Fell in a Well.

Paris, Tex., Sept. 5.—A little son of Randolph Lovelace, living at Howland, went to the well to draw water. While leaning over the curbing he lost his balance and fell to the bottom. The well was 20 feet deep and the only injury sustained was a gash in the forehead.

CUBAN REVENUES.

The Cost of Collections Lower Than in the United States.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The war department has made the remarkable statement, based on actual figures in the possession of the secretary of war, that the cost of collection throughout the internal revenue service in Cuba for the first six months of 1899, is less by 1.32 per cent than the cost of collection at the ports of the United States. The percentage of cost of collection at all ports of the United States is 4.62. According to the figures shown the percentage of cost of collection for all the custom houses on the island of Cuba for the period named is 3.03, while the cost of collection for the single port of Havana is 2.37 per cent. It is asserted that the percentage at the port of Havana is lower than the percentage of cost of collection at any single port of entry in the United States. This is demonstrated by the report of the supervising special agent of the treasury of the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1899. This report shows that the cost of collection at the port of New York is 2.80 per cent, at the port of Philadelphia 3.80 per cent, San Francisco 7.20, New Orleans 13.50, and at Baltimore 13.90 per cent.

If the first six months of the present year be a criterion by which to judge collections, the annual collections of customs at the great commercial ports of New York, Philadelphia and Boston only in the order named, will exceed those of Havana. As a matter of fact the collections of the port of Boston only exceed those of the port of Havana by something less than $400,000.

The percentage given above are exceedingly creditable to the customs service in Cuba, the more so because they are based on the business of a port when their was a lack of organization due to the recent inception of the customs service in Cuba and in which the commerce of the island was in an unsettled condition. For the reason just cited and for the additional reasons that many of the customs officers were entirely unfamiliar with their new duties and that extraordinary expenses were due to the dismantled condition in which the service was left by the previous administration were incurred, the statement above made is most surprising and satisfactory.

THE CORN CROP.

Estimates From Corn States Make This Year's Production a Record Breaker.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—The Tribune says that only an accident can prevent the breaking of all previous records by the corn crop production of the United States this year. A canvass of the states which raise the bulk of the corn of this country warrants an estimate above that of 1896, which heretofore has been the record, and there is much in the advice received to justify a prediction that the crop will approximate 2,500,000,000 bushels. The first corn crop of the country to reach in round numbers 2,000,000,000 bushels was that of 1885. Including the crop now to be harvested, only nine crops of 2,000,000,000 bushels or over have been produced.

Chad Britton Found Dead.

Middlesboro, Ky., Sept. 5.—Chad Britton, of Cumberland Gap, Tenn., a native of Kentucky, and a wealthy distiller, was found dead in Powell's Valley with a bullet hole through his heart. A 45-caliber revolver was lying near with one empty chamber. Many believe he was murdered, for he had many enemies. He had been speculating in late, it is said, and had lost considerable money.

Instantly Killed.

Oklahoma City, O. T., Sept. 5.—"Kikie" White was shot and instantly killed here by Martin Bales. White had remonstrated with Bales for paying too much attention to Mrs. White. Bales went to the hotel where White worked, called him out and placed a revolver at White's heart, fired. Bales is in jail.

To Take Troops to Philippines.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Secretary Root has authorized the quartermaster's department to charter the Olympia, to Victoria and the City of Rio to transport troops to the Philippines. These ships are now on the Pacific, and will be ready for use within 10 days.
